The Hall can seat up to 280 and the Chopin Society are using it for the majority of their events in 2023-24. Doors open 45 minutes before the start of the recital. You are requested not to arrive any earlier than that.

November 26th at 4.30pm MARTINO TIRIMO Recital

“A formidable virtuoso and one with unmistakable magnetism.” The Guardian

“Tirimo’s playing belongs to a past generation of ‘greats’. Listening to him I conjure up aural images of Solomon, Arrau, Kempff, Serkin, Schnabel and Rubinstein. Throughout the evening one was consistently aware that this supreme musician placed himself entirely at the service of the composer.”

Bill Newman, Music and Vision

Martino Tirimo was born into a musical family in Cyprus and began piano and violin lessons with his father, a conductor and violinist. He gave his first concert at the age of six and when only twelve he conducted seven performances of Verdi’s La Traviata, including soloists from La Scala, Milan.

At the age of thirteen his family moved to London and he continued his education at Bedales School. At sixteen he won the Liszt Scholarship to the Royal Academy of Music, graduating with the highest honours, after which he completed his studies in Vienna. He later worked closely with Gordon Green, whom he regarded as his greatest mentor. In 1971 and 1972 victories in the International Piano Competitions in Munich and Geneva launched his international career.

He has appeared with many of the world’s leading orchestras, including all the major British orchestras and those in Berlin, Cleveland, Dresden, Leipzig, Munich, Prague, Vienna and other centres, with conductors including Barbirolli, Boult, Pritchard, Kurt Sanderling, Masur, Norrington and Rattle.

He has also directed from the keyboard several cycles of the five Beethoven

Concertos with the Dresden Philharmonic, both in Germany and at the Royal Festival Hall in London. He has often appeared with this orchestra both as soloist and conductor.

Hänssler Classics have just released a boxed set of 16 CDs of all the solo piano works of Beethoven, recorded at the Gewandhaus in Leipzig.

Martino Tirimo will play:
Chopin— 3 Mazurkas Op. 59;
3 Nocturnes; 3 Waltzes;
Barcarolle in F sharp Op.60;
Sonata No.3 in B minor Op.58

A CHRISTMAS MEMBERS' MATINÉE on Sunday 10th December

At Carlisle Place

By kind permission of Leslie MacLeod-Miller

3.30pm for 4.00pm

We are very grateful to our Member and Legal Advisor, Leslie MacLeod-Miller, for hosting another Matinée in his gorgeous flat. The Committee would like to thank him most sincerely. Our Members' Matinéés continue to be heavily over-subscribed, and are absolute highlights in the Chopin Society's year.

The President & Committee are anxious everyone should understand the nature of these rather special concerts. "Members' Matinéés" are exactly that. They are primarily for the benefit of our pianist Members and their friends. No advertising takes place, and the general public is only admitted as the guests of Members. These events are free to performers, but Members and guests must pay £14.

It must also be pointed out that these informal afternoons are not part of our standard concert series. No auditions are held, and the programme is planned around the repertoire offered, rather than the standard of the performers. Anybody who can play the piano to at least Grade V standard (adult beginners, amateurs, students & professionals) is welcome to take part. No performance fees are paid.

So, to come to a Members' Matinée expecting a uniformly professional standard of playing is to miss the point entirely, and we feel sure that the majority of our Members understand this very well.

Playing in public is an ordeal at first of course, but a necessary one. Like all the arts, music is a form of communication; a way of sharing experiences and emotions. And after all, there is nothing quite as encouraging to the performer as some well-earned applause! Amateur pianists in particular need the motivation of working towards a performance date. It helps concentrate the mind and results in steady progress. Piano teachers are therefore very keen on performance opportunities for their pupils— but in reality these are few and far between.

We like to think we are carrying on a tradition from Chopin's day, when playing an instrument was an important social skill, and concerts and impromptu performances of all kinds were often given amongst friends in private houses. In the days before mass entertainment it was a popular pastime at all levels of society.

Pianists should think carefully about what they would like to play. As a general rule it is advisable to choose pieces that are well within your capabilities and not to be too ambitious.

If you have taken part in a Members' Matinée before, we would prefer you not to play a piece you have recently played at an earlier Matinée.

Newcomers should know it is not necessary to perform Chopin. Some people do of course, but it's always nice to have a mixture of composers. If people want to perform their own compositions, they must bring a copy of the music, as improvisations are not allowed.

Important! People who have played at a Members' Matinée cannot say in their CVs they have performed for the Chopin Society. It is not a professional engagement.

Booking form enclosed. You are strongly advised to book early to avoid disappointment, as seats and pianist slots are strictly limited.

The full venue address plus travel directions (if requested) will be sent to successful applicants with their tickets.

YOUNG ARTIST RECITAL AT STEINWAY HALL

44 Marylebone Lane London W1U 2DB

(nearest tube: Bond Street)

Thursday September 14th at 6.30pm

Pianist: ALANNA CROUCH

For a long time we have hoped to present more concerts by young pianists, but until now have not had the opportunity to expand from our regular venue in Victoria. Craig Terry, Managing Director of Steinways in London, has now kindly offered us the use of Steinway Hall as one of the venues for what we hope will prove to be a regular series.

16-year-old British pianist, ALANNA CROUCH, was invited to perform a Mozart piano concerto in Barbados at the age of 5 and has since performed in the UK, USA and Barbados, appearing at venues including Frank Collymore Hall, Brunswick House, Lansdowne Club, Savile Club and Steinway Hall UK.

Alanna began her studies with Tom Donald of London Contemporary School of Music and currently studies classical piano under Christine Croshaw of Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance, and music analysis and composition with Prof. Dr. Bohdan Syroyid from the University of Salamanca (Spain). When she was 7, she attained high distinctions in ABRSM Grade 5 Jazz and ABRSM Grade 8 exams and went on to become the youngest person to pass the DipABRSM at age 8. Alanna was chosen as one of the Honorable Mention Winners of the American Protégé International Piano and Strings Competition 2016 and performed at the winners' concert at Carnegie Hall, New York. At 12, Alanna was awarded The Geoffrey Timms Prize at the Essex Young Musician of the Year competition in 2019.

A keen composer since age 7, Alanna's passion for storytelling has produced a catalogue of emotive pieces and film score compositions. 'Princess Emma', a short film collaboration with her older sister, Keira, won a series of awards (including Best Original Score and the Grand Jury Prize Winner for Best Student Short at the Imagine Rain Independent Film Awards 2021). In October 2021, Alanna co-composed the music with Archie Jennings for the original score and movement piece 'Black & Blue', directed by Colette Brown of Four of Wands Productions and performed by Francisco Serano.

Alanna also frequently draws inspiration from the works of visual artists, such as those by Valerie Granjou-Cook, an intuitive artist and painter, who has presented an expanding number of her works alongside Alanna's compositions that were inspired by them.

In September 2022, Alanna joined the artists distributing music under Little Symphony Records and a growing collection of her original pieces is now accessible on all major music streaming services.

In January 2023, Alanna's piece 'Nocturne in D flat' was selected for publication by EVC Music in a new piano anthology inspired by Chopin's Nocturnes, scheduled for release in August 2023.

Alanna still loves to perform and has started to include her own pieces in recital programmes. She played an original piece 'Caverns' as a supporting act for Dominic Ferris at Crazy Coqs, London in 2021, another of her own pieces, 'Une Balade a Paris' at Elgar Room of Royal Albert Hall as part of the Elena Cobb Star Prize in April 2022 and two pieces 'Carnation, Lily, Lily, Rose' and 'Morning' were included in her solo recital at Savile Club in June 2022. Most recently, she was invited to perform a recital of original compositions and classical music at The Portsmouth Grammar School for Ports Fest in June 2023.

Upcoming recitals include a solo recital at Lansdowne Club as part of Bluthner's Young Artist series in November 2023 and a guest performance at The Classical Best of Youth recital in Barbados in December 2023.

Alanna will play:

STAY FOR TEA and meet the artist

‘Tea’ is in fact a generous buffet consisting of a variety of freshly made sandwiches with traditional fillings, (including veggie options), savouries, crisps and cheese straws. Then there’s cakes and chocolate biscuits, all served with your choice of tea, coffee, fruit juice, mineral water or a glass of rather good wine.

It’s nice to relax and chat too, and you’ll find it easy to make new friends when you’ve all just listened to an excellent concert. The artists usually attend the tea and are happy to meet their audience. So why not give it a go! We can serve up to 70 people.

Tea tickets are a very reasonable £10, or £5 (students). Youth Members pay £4.

Book in advance: info@chopin-society.org.uk 0203 144 0033, or buy a tea ticket on the door on the day with cash or by cheque.

The President's Letter

1st August 2023

Dear Members & Friends,

First of all I would like to thank all those who have renewed their subscriptions.

While we are not quite up to the record numbers of last year—especially high because of the membership extending from 2020 to March 2023, we are nonetheless over 200 members at the present time, excluding Friends and Honorary Members, and expect to receive more renewals with this reminder, as well as the usual annual influx of “half-pricers”.

I feel I should point out that half price membership is only available to new Members. People were Members during the period 2020-2023 are not eligible.

When the last newsletter went out in the Spring, Lara Melda had not yet given her concert of works by Beethoven, Liszt, Poulenc and Brahms, with a Chopin Nocturne and the B minor Sonata in the second half, which took place on 26th March.

I was amazed at how her playing had developed both musically and technically since she last played for us. She deserves to get to the top, and I hope she will receive the necessary help and encouragement to achieve this. She certainly got a very good audience, so obviously has a following.

Sofya Gulyak's concert on 30th April was another tour-de-force. This former Leeds winner has performed for us several times, and her playing shows all the freedom and power of the Russian School. Her programme included works by Clara and Robert Schumann, Brahms, Franck, and of course Chopin, with the rarely performed Variations brillantes Op.12 and two Valses. Her finale was Ravel's La Valse. A brilliant piece, brilliantly played. She also attracted a very good audience.

It is interesting to see how certain works crop up unexpectedly several times in a year. We do expect it with the Chopin Barcarolle or Sonata in B minor, but this year it is La Valse—technically an exceptionally difficult piece. Lucas Krupinski played it in January, Sofya in April and Vitaly Pisarenko will play it in September. I don't think anyone will mind, as it is so exciting!

Murray McLachlan's recital, scheduled for May 21st, did not in the end take place.

It was to have been preceded by the AGM, but we had barely got started when I was told that one of the members in attendance had collapsed. Peter Roberts, one of our most supportive and long-standing members had quietly fallen asleep and died.

He was one of my favourite members, and had several times played Chopin beautifully and with great style at our Members' Matinées. Always smart and elegantly dressed, he never missed an AGM, and this time had insisted on coming (his wife told me), even though he was 93 and always travelled by public transport.

I saw he had arrived early, and just before we started the Meeting he went to sit beside a friend of his, who later—seeing that he had dropped his agenda sheet—realised what had happened.

It was a shock for everyone there. I felt very sad that Peter had left us, but must admit it was a good and peaceful way to go.

Thankfully Co-Chairman Charles Grant took charge and rang 999. Soon there was an ambulance and four ambulance cars, followed by numerous police and the Cathedral Security people. Even a couple of priests. Some effort was made to revive Peter, to no avail.

Of course the Meeting had to be abandoned and the Hall vacated awaiting the arrival of the Coroner, and so there was no question of the concert taking place. Murray McLachlan very kindly waived his fee, and will now play the same programme for us on January 28th next year.

The rescheduled AGM will take place before Vitaly Pisarenko's recital on 24th September. All paid-up Members are invited, but AGMs are not open to Friends (Associate Members).

Meanwhile, on behalf of myself and the Chopin Society I would like to offer our sincere condolences to Mrs. Eileen Roberts and the Roberts family.

In the circumstances I do hope Members do not feel short changed by losing one of their free concerts, and not having one in June, but between 18th June and 2nd July we had an evening concert at Hatchlands Park, a Committee Meeting, the first Young Artist's Concert and a Members' Matinée, and we felt that was quite enough to cope with.

We have not held a concert at Hatchlands Park for quite a few years, mainly because it is an expensive undertaking and it is hard to cover costs.

Thanks to the very generous sponsorship of £2,000 from Dr. & Mrs. Jozef Przybylski and donations of £1,600 from Monsieur & Madame Richard Armand, plus £1,000 from Mrs. Elzbieta Stanhope, we felt we could take the risk, and with a sell-out with box office receipts amounting to £4,585 we were just able to break even.

This was an important concert for us as the Chopin Society has adopted the Chopin Pleyel played on the night, which is part of the magnificent Cobbe Collection.

Melvyn Tan was the pianist, and he certainly knows how to bring out the best in the instrument. His all-Chopin concert, including the Polonaise Fantaisie Op. 61 and the 24 Preludes Op. 28, was a great success.

The buffet in the interval, supplied by Standby Chef—otherwise known as Lunch is Ready—was really delicious with lots of choice and plenty for everyone.

As always, Alec & Isobel Cobbe were wonderful hosts and Alec's illustrated talk on the Collection was a highlight of the evening.

All our thanks to Treasurer Angela Delbourgo, who once again kindly hosted the Committee Meeting on June 25th, this time in the communal gardens attached to her building. It was a particularly enjoyable occasion as the weather was lovely and we celebrated Secretary Gill Newman's 75th birthday with champagne and a wonderful cake expertly baked by Committee Member Angelica Cayzer Anelli.

Many subjects were discussed, and it was decided that, contrary to what we had originally said, that the tea price of £10 would include one glass of wine rather than two, but there would be more wine in the glasses!

We also expressed our gratitude to the memory of the late member Yvonne Clarke, a distinguished musician and great supporter of the Society, for leaving us a bequest of £10,000. This was paid by her lawyers into the Society's account on March 20th—my birthday.

Another very nice birthday present was a medal from the Polish Ministry of Education, for services to education. The medal was presented by the Deputy Minister of Education in a ceremony in the Little Brompton Oratory. Other recipients included Halina, Lady Munster; Mrs. Maria Byczynski of British Poles UK, and Mr. Justin Maciejewski DSO MBE, Director of the National Army Museum.

On 28th June, the first of the Chopin Society's Young Artist's concerts took place at Steinway Hall, with Adam Repa as soloist.

He gave an excellent performance of a difficult programme, including Bach, Chopin and four of Liszt's Transcendental Studies. The event could not have been more of a success. A wonderful start to this new venture!

The next Young Artist's Recital will take place at Steinway Hall on 14th September at 6.30pm.

This time the pianist will be 16 year old Alanna Crouch, a remarkable talent who obtained her ABRSM Grade VIII at the age of 7. A natural pianist, she is also a gifted and imaginative composer. Alanna is a protégée of Craig Terry, Managing Director of Steinway & Sons in London, and he has kindly agreed to be in charge of her concert.

I do hope you will join us. This event is free and open to both Members and Friends, but booking is essential as space is strictly limited to 50 people.

The Members' Matinée at Petersham Lodge on 2nd July was a happy occasion.

People were delighted to see Princess Josephine looking much recovered from her year of health setbacks which included pneumonia and a fractured spine.

The iron discipline of a her career as a former dancer with the Sadler's Wells (later Royal Ballet) Company has obviously stood her in good stead.

She was the perfect hostess and the tea was exceptionally delicious.

All our thanks to the Princess for such wonderful hospitality, and we hope she will be back to playing in a Matinée soon.

As usual with the Petersham Lodge Matinées, it was sold out months before the event, and we also had a record number of pianists applying to play.

With both audience and performers I accept the first to apply, as it is only fair, and this meant that some of the best pianists could not be included. Nevertheless the standard in the main was still very good.

David Pentecost, who played at one of the first Petersham Lodge Matinées 20 years ago, came over especially from Cyprus together with his friend Tatiana Stupak, a Russian pianist who runs a music school in Cyprus. She gave a marvellous performance of Chopin's first Ballade, its difficulties presenting no problem whatever to her. David played some of his own compositions, which were particularly attractive.

During the afternoon he filmed the proceedings, and is kindly offering to email any of the musicians with an MP3 video file of their performances. Also he has free CDs by Tatiana available for simply the cost of postage & packing.

Please contact David on djpentecost@hotmail.com if you want to take him up on either of these offers.

The Society's Legal Adviser, Leslie MacLeod-Miller, has very generously offered a special Christmas Members' Matinée at Carlisle Place on 10th December.

Leslie can seat more people than is possible at Petersham lodge, but the number of pianists who can play is much the same, as we do not want to concert to be too long.

The "free for members" concerts at Westminster Cathedral Hall this Autumn will be given by Vitaly Pisarenko on September 24th—preceded by the AGM; Piers Lane on 29th October, and Martino Tirimo on 26th November.

I mentioned the International Chopin Competition for Young Pianists which took place at Ognisko back in March in the last Newsletter, but neglected to mention the name of the first prizewinner of the senior category (16-19 years old), to whom the Chopin Society donated a prize of £1,000. She was Xinrui Quian and she won with virtuoso performances of the Etude in C sharp minor Op.10 No.4 and the fiendishly tricky Variations on "La ci darem la mano".

I very much hope she will play in our Young Artist Series in the future.

The Chopin Festival, organised by Chopin Society Member Janusz Sikora-Sikorski, will take place in POSK on 21st October. See page 7 for more details.

Assisted by Co-Chairman Charles Grant, who will read excerpts from Chopin's letters, I will be giving a talk at 5.00pm downstairs in the Jazz Club on Chopin and George Sand's incident filled visit to Majorca in 1839.

Mateusz Borowiak, who many of you will remember as the pianist at the Chopin Society's Guildhall Gala in 2014, will be taking part in the Gala Concert that evening. Mateusz is now Assistant Professor of Piano at the Karol Szymanowski Academy of Music in Katowice, Poland.

The Chopin Society is supporting the Festival by giving it free publicity.

I was very sorry to hear that Member John Hadler had recently died. He had joined the Society in 2011, was a charming gentleman, and attended many of our concerts. I think he was something of a piano connoisseur.

Recently a truly terrible tragedy happened when Alec & Isobel Cobbe's youngest son Henry was driving his two sons, Felix and Charles, down a rain-soaked motorway.

The car aquaplaned, went completely out of control and hit a parked lorry. Charles was killed and Henry and Felix seriously injured. It has been a great shock to everyone.

I think with sorrow of the lovely evening we passed at Hatchlands on the 18th June, and then only a few weeks later there was this appalling misfortune.

I am certain you will all join with me in sending our condolences to the Cobbe family and expressing just how sorry we are.

Alan Repa has kindly agreed to take on the running of the Young Artist Concerts and the Members' Matinées in his capacity as Assistant Artistic Director, and it is to him that applications for these events should be sent in future.

However I still retain some input with the programming of the Matinées.

This has been a long letter, but there was a lot of ground to cover!

Finally, on behalf of myself and the Committee I hope you are all having a good summer and look forward to seeing you in the Autumn for another tranche of excellent music-making.

Yours sincerely,

Rose Cholmondeley

Artistic Director

Have you seen it yet?

During the membership year of 2022-23 THE CHOPIN SOCIETY of the UK had 365 Patrons, Honorary Members, Life Members, Members and Friends. It offers monthly piano recitals plus occasional talks, Galas and other special events in venues across London. In 2023-24 we are presenting another superb series of concerts with excellent artists.

Our piano - a 2015 Steinway Model B Grand, was chosen for us in Hamburg by Steinway's Head of Concert & Artists' Services, Ulrich Gerhartz, and President Rose Cholmondeley, assisted by Craig Terry, Managing Director of Steinway's in London. It is maintained by Steinway & Sons, who tune it before each recital and service it regularly. The piano is housed at Westminster Cathedral Hall.

Programmes always include works by Chopin, with some consisting entirely of Chopin. We engage established international pianists and a selection of the best of the new generation of professionals, as well as—from time to time—respected lecturers and Chopin specialists.

In addition to our regular concert series we also give amateur, professional and student pianists the opportunity to play several times a year at Members' Matinées, held in private houses in Greater London. These extremely popular events are not open to the general public. Only Members and their guests may attend if they have bought tickets, but pianists come free. You must be a paid-up Member of the Society to perform in Members' Matinées. No fees are paid to performers on these occasions and they do not count as professional engagements.

Most of our concerts are followed by an informal Reception and buffet tea consisting of freshly-made sandwiches, savouries, chocolate biscuits and homemade cakes, accompanied by quality wine, coffee, tea, juice or mineral water, plus the chance to meet the artist and also make new friends. An extra charge is made for this if you wish to stay for it (see page 14). We can cater for up to 70.

For information on joining The Chopin Society go to our website www.chopin-society.org.uk Click on the "Join the Society" link on the homepage, and download an application form, or ask at any recital.

YOU DO NOT NEED TO BE A MEMBER TO ATTEND RECITALS

Non-Members are welcome at all our regular concerts. Ticket prices are on page 3. You are recommended to book in advance.

Book online via WeGotTickets.com (search for Chopin Society). Tickets may also be available on the door on the day unless stated.

For enquiries give Secretary Gillian Newman a ring on 0203 144 0033 or email her: info@chopin-society.org.uk
